

Mini Quilt Challenge #3

By Lynne Nostrant
For June Meeting Show and Tell

April 2023 Prompt: Word/s

- Use a word or words in your BOTEOM mini quilt
- Any size
- Any colors
- Any technique - applique, written on fabric, printed text fabric
- Show us what you made at the June 2023 meeting

Pieced Words

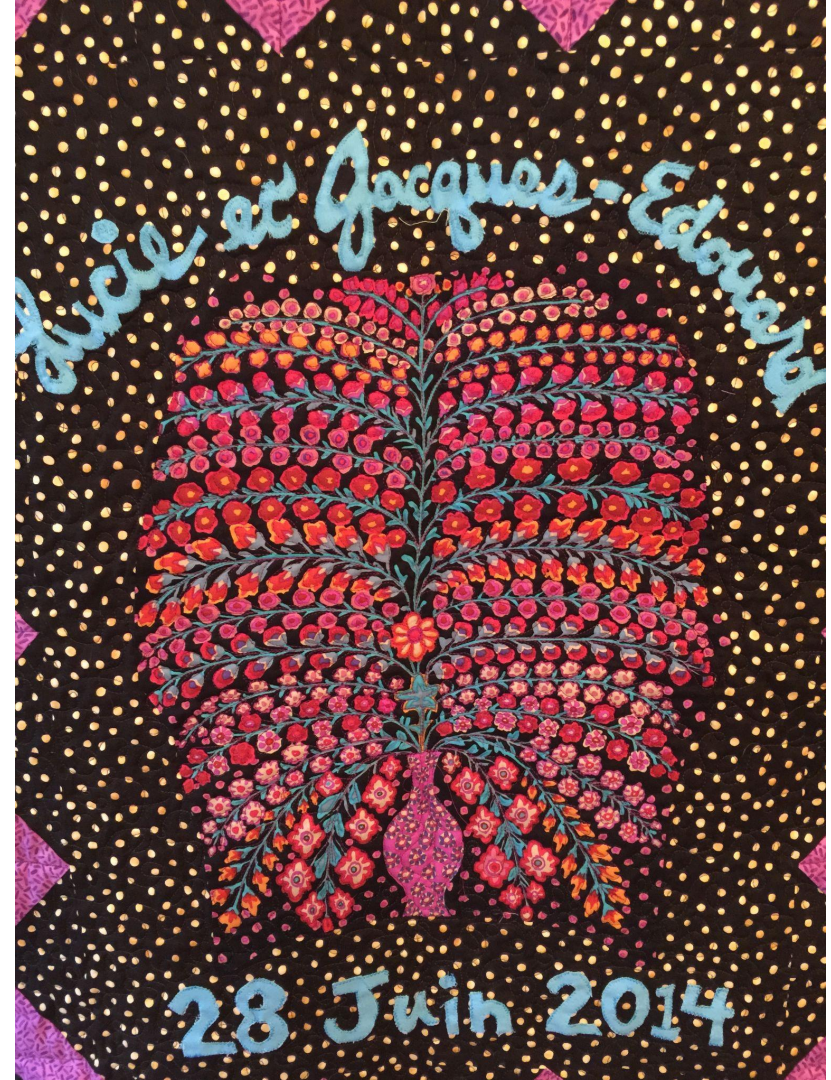

I used scraps from making Covid masks for this hopeful mini, using Denyse Schmidt's Proverbial Quilt letters. I paper-pieced the letters.

For many, the pandemic has passed. But for some of us, it's still a very real threat.

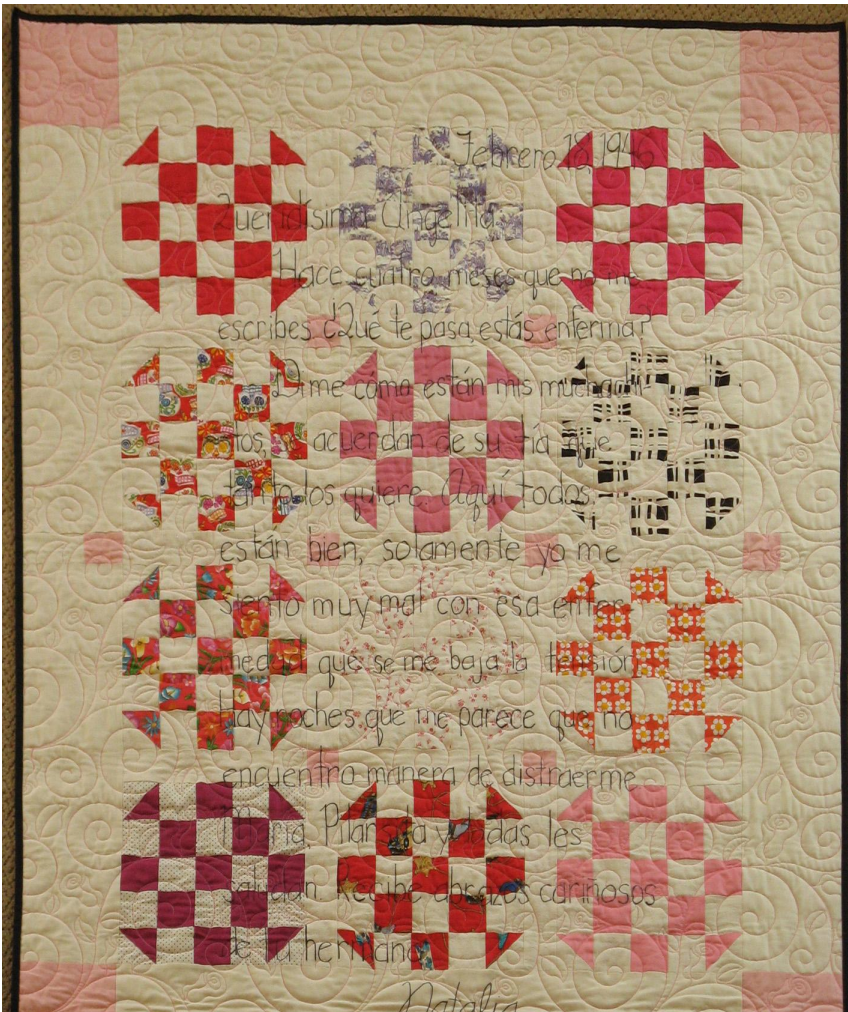

Applique

I call this Wedding in Paris because I made it to celebrate a French friend's marriage.
Free-drawn letters fused onto background and raw-edge appliqued.

Queridísima Angelita

Pam Rocco found an old Spanish/English dictionary in a thrift store. Tucked inside were some documents, a Costa Rican “Dos Colones” bill, and a letter dated 1946 from “Natalia” to “Angelita.” Pam was moved by the letter to copy the text onto a quilt.
