

We started our meeting with four demo stations prepared for and lead by:

Anna Brenkwitz	Zippers
Lori Green	Color Wheel
Heidi Mackessey	Floating blocks
Laura Ryle	Facing binding

(Personal note: Thanks so much for sharing your skills with us. All your prep was obvious.)

Isabelle lead the remainder of the meeting:

- Event held at Capitola Library was huge success. We all watched the MQG presentation Maximalism by Irene Roderick and did a variety of hand sewing projects and fabric sorting. And lots of catching up. Not to mention the muffins and cookies/coffee and tea

Bring your ideas for groups - projects - skills

- Election of officers for 2024 will be held at the December General Meeting. Let us know if you're thinking about participating. We'd love to have you. It's really fun.

- Ruth Smith presented PVQA quilt show info for next February. The theme is Galaxy of Quilts. Our group is going to enter under A Modern Universe theme. See the information sheet handed out by Ruth. We also will get it up on the website for anyone who missed it.

Our very own Karen Foster will be the featured artist for the show, so let's bring on support.

We are sponsoring a raffle basket containing anything to do with modern quilting. Donations encouraged.

- End of Year Swap - Isabelle will email sign-ups. The project will be a thread catcher. An example and directions will be on the website.
- Mac's class on Saturday was super fun and productive. Photos posted to Instagram and Website
- Sew N Tell
